(2) 1. Of these 6, Urakam and Ernakulam Town cases ended in acquittal in the Chief Court.

(c) No answer is necessary in view of answer to section (b).

(d) The one case of Urakam is still pending trial in court, since the accused is under observation in the Mental Hospital.

The case of Chittur was struck off as the accused died in the course of trial of the case.

The one case of 1103 of the Irinjalakkuda station was removed to the Block register as the accused is at Colombo and could not, therefore, be apprehended. The one case of Trichur Cusba was reported undetectable, and the other case of Chittur ended in conviction, but lost in the Chief Court.

Mr. C. A. Kunjunni Raja.—May I know what will be the cost of collection charges for teak per candy?

Mr. K. Ramunni Menon.—The collection is only along with the Tramway. Between 5 and 3.

Mr. C. A. Kunjunni Raja.—What is the seigniorage rate generally collected ?

Mr. K. Ramunni Menon.—No seigniorage.

Mr. C. A. Kunjunni Raja.—From the contractors ? This 785, I suppose, included timber sold in the Tramway sales and other sources for more than Rs. 10 and below Rs. 15.

Mr. K. Ramunni Menon.—It does not include.

Mr. C. A. Kunjunni Raja.—Is it only for the O. W. C. Range ?

Mr. K. Ramunni Menon.—It includes other items also.

Mr. C. A. Kunjunni Raja.— What is the seigniorage rate levied from the contractors from other ranges than the O. W. C.?

Mr. K. Ramunni Menon.— There is no seigniorage for teak.
